Fernando: Mmm... 28. Is she married?
Len: No, she isn't. She's single, but... Here she is.
Tracy: Hi, Len.
Len: Hi.
Fernando: Hi, Tracy.
Len: Tracy, this is Fernando Rodrigues. He's an old friend.
Tracy: Hello, Fernando. Nice to meet you.
Fernando: Nice to meet you, too.
Tracy: So, where are you from, Fernando?
Fernando: I'm from Chile.
Tracy: So you're Chilean. That's interesting. Chile is beautiful.
Fernando: Yes, it is.
Len: Excuse me.
Fernando: So, you're a reporter, right?
Tracy: Yes.
Fernando: I'm a film director.
Tracy: Really? I love movies. What's your last name again?

Fernando: Hello, Tracy... Hello, hello!

episode 2

This is Maria. She is a secretary. She isn't at the office now; she's in her backyard. She loves gardening! These are her flowers. She has red, pink, yellow and white flowers. Maria is in her yard every day from 3 to 5 p.m. Gardening is fun but it is also a bit tiring. Maria doesn't mind, though because her flowers are very pretty.

Maria's husband, Patrick, is a surgeon. He works in a very busy hospital. He is responsible for many people's lives. When he is not at the hospital, he is at home. His favorite pastime is playing chess. He is a great doctor but he isn't a very good chess player. Maria always wins.

Maria and Patrick have a son, Robbie. He's a very polite boy but he's very shy. He can't talk to us now. He is in a hurry to go skiing.

Maria's sister, Kathy, is a teacher. She can speak four languages, English, French, Spanish and Italian. She is also very active. She loves riding her bike and as you can see she loves reading books. She can read a whole book in one day.

Tonight they are all getting together for dinner.

episode 3

Tracy: Hello! It's 5:15 on a Monday afternoon. This is Talk to Tracy with Tracy Woodstock. Today's program is about people at work. Let's meet Jessica Peterson. Hello, Jessica.
Jessica: Hi, Tracy.
Tracy: So, Jessica, what do you do?
Jessica: I'm a receptionist.
Tracy: And where do you work?
Jessica: I work here, at the fitness club.
Tracy: What exactly do you do?
Jessica: I answer the phone, I give people information about our club and I welcome our members and give them the keys to the lockers.
Tracy: What do you like about your job?
Jessica: I like dealing with people. I like my colleagues. They're all very nice. I like the place, too. It's cool.
Tracy: Is it an easy job?
Jessica: Yeah, it's easy and interesting. The only problem is the hours.
Tracy: Really? What time do you start and finish work?
Jessica: Well, on weekdays I usually work from 11:30 in the morning to 9:00 o'clock in the evening, but on Saturdays and Sundays we're open day and night, so I work until midnight or even 2:00 a.m.
Tracy: That's hard.
Jessica: Very. I get up early in the morning, do some housework and then come to work.
Tracy: Are you married, Jessica?
Jessica: Yes, I am.
Tracy: And what does your husband do?
Jessica: He's a driver. He works for a hotel and he drives people to and from the airport.
Tracy: Oh, so he works long hours, too.
Jessica: Oh, yes, day and night.
Tracy: When do you see each other? When do you relax?
Jessica: Not on the weekend for sure. We take Wednesday

Len: I'd like to go to a movie tonight. What do you think?

Tracy: Good idea. You know, Len, I love going to the movies.

Len: There's a good movie on at the Rex. It's just across the street and the second show starts in 15 minutes.

Tracy: What kind of movie is it?

Len: I think it's an adventure movie.

Tracy: Do you like adventure movies?

Len: Yes, I do.

Tracy: I can't stand them.

Len: What kind of movies do you like?

Tracy: I love romantic comedies and I like musicals, too.

Len: I hate romantic movies.

Tracy: Ugh... You're not very romantic, Len.

Len: That's right.

Tracy: Just like a man! Do you go to the movies a lot?

Len: Not very often. I don't like going alone. How often do you go?

Tracy: I usually go once a week.

Len: So what's your favorite movie?

Tracy: Pretty Woman.

Len: Ugh!

Tracy: Come on, Len. It's a fantastic movie.

Len: I think it's horrible. Anyway, who's your favorite actor?

Tracy: Brad Pitt.

Len: He's OK.

Tracy: Who is your favorite?

Len: Monica Belucci.

Tracy: I see. Is she starring in tonight's movie?

Len: I'm not sure.

Tracy: Can I have a look?

Len: Sure.

Tracy: The adventure movie is not on tonight.

Len: Really? What's on then?

Tracy: A love story. Do you want to see it?

Len: I never watch love stories.

Tracy: But you know I enjoy love stories.

Len: OK then.

Tracy: Great!

episode 5

Gwen: Hi, Tracy.

Tracy: Hi, Sis. Come on in.

Gwen: So, this is your new apartment.

Tracy: Mm. Do you like it?

Gwen: It's cool. Isn't this Mom's sofa?

Tracy: Yes it is, but she has a new sofa now.

Gwen: So, is it yours now?

Tracy: Yes, it's mine.

Gwen: Whose book is this?

Tracy: It's mine, Gwen.

Gwen: I think it's Mom's. She likes reading love stories.

Tracy: No, it isn't hers. It's a gift.

Gwen: Who from?

Tracy: Len.

Gwen: Mmm, I see. Very romantic...

Tracy: How about some music?

Gwen: Sure. That's a Ginger CD.

Tracy: Yeah, it's really cool.

Gwen: Very cool! And I think it's mine.

Tracy: No, this CD is Len's.

Gwen: Are you sure?

Tracy: I'm positive. I have lots of Len's CDs for the party.

Gwen: Party! What party?

Tracy: My housewarming party.

Gwen: A party! That's fantastic! Guests?

Tracy: Well, you know, family. Mom, Dad, you, Auntie Beatrice, Uncle Joe and the twins. Oh, Betty from the office, and of course Len and his nephew.

Gwen: Len's nephew? How old is he?

Tracy: About your age.

Gwen: What does he look like?

Tracy: Well, he's tall and slim. He has short blond hair and green eyes. He's very handsome.

Gwen: Really? What does he do?

Tracy: He's an Art student.

Gwen: Sounds interesting.

Tracy: Yeah, his girlfriend is very nice, too.

Gwen: Oh, Tracy! You are horrible.

episode 6

In today's program, let's watch the famous football player Brian Jones at home.

Brian and his wife, Kelly, live in a beautiful big house in Ripton, Vermont. Brian usually plays games on the weekend, but this weekend he isn't playing, so he is free to relax at home.

Kelly is a journalist, so she usually works very hard. She spends a lot of time in front of the computer.

But today is Sunday, so she's spending more time in front of the TV. Kelly is watching her favorite soap opera, but there's a baseball game on another channel that Brian wants to watch. It's the usual fight over the remote control.

Of course, Brian exercises every day. He usually goes running on his own early in the morning. But today, Kelly is running with him. They really enjoy running because it's great exercise. It also gives them a chance to chat about this and that.

When at home, Brian and Kelly do many things together. They have a beautiful garden and they really enjoy gardening. Today they are planting some flowers. When they finish, they want to go for a walk.

But unfortunately, it's raining now. Oh, well, it's lucky they have a lovely home to go back to.

episode 7

Hi! Tim Baxter here and you're watching Our World. Tonight I'm in a helicopter flying over the Big Apple, or as most of us know it, New York City. It's almost midnight and as you can see the view from up here is fantastic.

A helicopter ride over the city is very popular with tourists. It starts here at New York's famous landmark, the Statue of Liberty. First we fly a few times around the statue, then we leave her behind and fly towards Manhattan.

You can't really see because it's dark, but Manhattan is an island in the middle of the Hudson River. Now, we are flying over the Brooklyn Bridge. It's just one of the many bridges in New York City. Millions of people travel across them every day to get to downtown Manhattan.

There are lots of skyscrapers in New York. There's the Chrysler Building with its beautiful lights. And that one down there, I'm sure everybody knows. Yes, it's the Empire State Building. It looks small from up here, but believe me, it's not. It's 1 250 feet tall.

Our next stop is a place that some people call 'the center of the world,' Times Square, right in the middle of Manhattan. Of course, New York is a great place to go shopping. Actually... Hey, Mr. Helicopter Pilot, can you drop me off here? I want to do some shopping.

episode 8

Len: Thanks for coming and making dinner for me, Mom. I love pizza.
Mom: It's OK. Just help me.
Len: Sure! What do you need?
Mom: First of all, we need some tomato sauce. Now pour the sauce on the pizza.
Len: What else do we need?
Mom: Do you have any onions?
Len: How many do you need?
Mom: Not many. One or two. Mmm, it's not very fresh.
Len: Sorry, Mom.
Mom: I need some peppers.
Len: I have lots of those. And they are very fresh!
Mom: Now cut them into very thin slices. Do you have any mushrooms?
Len: No... I don't have any mushrooms. But I have a few carrots.
Mom: Carrots? On a pizza?
Len: Mmm, no. You're right.
Mom: OK, no more vegetables, but I certainly need some cheese.
Len: I'm afraid there is not much cheese left.
Mom: Anyway, what kind is it? Is it mozzarella?
Len: No, it's plain old American cheese.
Mom: OK, we have no choice.
Len: What else do we need?
Mom: Add a little pepper.
Len: Pepper. How much?
Mom: Just a little.

Len: I'm afraid there isn't very much.
Mom: Len, do you ever go to the supermarket?
Len: You know, Mom, I'm a very busy person.
Mom: I need some olive oil. Len, this is corn oil.
Len: I don't have any olive oil. Is there anything else?
Mom: No, it's ready.
Len: Good.
Mom: Now heat the oven.
Len: Oh... Mom, I forgot. The oven is out of order. I know!
Voice on the phone: Pizza World. What would you like?
Len: Hi, I'd like a large pizza with lots of mozzarella cheese, peppers, onions and mushrooms. Thanks.

episode 9

Betty: I'm sorry. MissWoodstock is not here.
Len: Say, aren't you Jim Price?
Jim: Len Dawson. I don't believe it! I see you on TV all the time.
Len: Well, it sure is a small world. How are you doing, Jim? We went to school together.
Betty: Which school did you go to?
Len: Grant High School. Right, Jim?
Jim: That's right. A long long time ago.
Betty: Really? When did you finish school?
Jim: In 1986.
Len: So, Jim, did you go to college?
Jim: Yes, I did. I went to NYC.
Len: And what did you study?
Jim: I majored in business and management.
Len: Did you like it?
Jim: I had a great time, but I didn't do that well.
Len: Did you graduate?
Jim: Just about. What did you do after high school?
Len: I went to broadcasting school.
Jim: What did you study?
Len: We did lots of different subjects, public speaking, communication... I learned a lot.
Jim: What did you do then?
Len: I worked for a few radio stations and local channels.
Jim: And now you're on Channel TV.
Len: It's not an easy job, but I like it.
Jim: Oh, I think you're a very lucky man.
Len: Well, thank you, Jim. You are very kind. I do the best I can.
Jim: No, I mean you are so lucky. You work with Tracy Woodstock. She's my favorite. She's great!
Len: Oh, I see what you mean.
Jim: Well, anyway, nice seeing you again.
Len: Yeah... Bye now.

episode 10

Tim: And now we're going to go back in time, just a few hours, that is. Valerie Kingdom is in Las Vegas, where it's still December 31st. Is that right Valerie?
Valerie: Hi, Tim! You're right. The local time is 11:59 p.m. and there's a real party atmosphere here.

There are parties going on in every hotel and everybody is waiting for the big moment. It's not long now. There's going to be a huge fireworks display shortly and Las Vegas is preparing for the big party. And... Oh! Here we go. 5... 4... 3... 2... 1... Happy New Year!

Tim: Happy New Year, Valerie!

Valerie: Happy New Year, Tim!

Tim: Great fireworks!

Valerie: I agree. Well, we certainly know how to celebrate New Year's in Vegas.

Tim: Tell me more about this party.

Valerie: Well, Las Vegas is preparing for a really big street party. Performers from all over the world are going to take part.

Tim: Is there going to be a parade, too?

Valerie: No parade, but lots of singing, dancing and partying in the streets. However, there is going to be a New Year's Day parade in Las Vegas tomorrow afternoon.

Tim: I see. So, is the party going to go on all night there?

Valerie: Oh, I think so. I don't think anybody's going to get any sleep tonight.

Tim: Did you hear that, everyone? Vegas is the place to be tonight. And if you're in the area tomorrow, don't miss the big parade. Thanks, Valerie.

episode 11

Gwen: What are you going to do this weekend, Tracy?

Tracy: I'm not sure. How about you?

Gwen: I'm going to a party on Saturday night. Would you like to come with me?

Tracy: No, thanks.

Gwen: Will you do me a favor, sis?

Tracy: What is it?

Gwen: Can I borrow one of your dresses for the party?

Tracy: OK.

Gwen: Oh, thanks, Trace. I owe you one.

Tracy: You're welcome.

Gwen: I'm a little hungry. May I have a sandwich, please?

Tracy: Sure.

Gwen: Can you make one for me?

Tracy: Gwen!

Gwen: Hello.

Len: Hi. Can I speak to Tracy, please?

Gwen: Who is speaking?

Len: This is Len Dawson.

Gwen: Tracy, it's Len.

Tracy: Hi, Len. What's up?

Len: Not much. Would you like to go out with me tonight?

Tracy: I'm sorry, Len, I'm very tired. Maybe another time.

Len: I see. What are you doing tomorrow?

Tracy: I have to go to the dentist.

Len: What time?

Tracy: I have an appointment at 11:00.

Len: Where is your dentist?

Tracy: Downtown.

Len: Great, I'm going to be downtown, too. Let's meet at the Happy Hour Coffee House at 12:00.

Tracy: Could we make it a bit later? I have to do some shopping.

Len: Sure. What about one o'clock?

Tracy: OK.

Len: Great! Bye for now.

Tracy: I'll see you tomorrow, Len. Bye.

Gwen: There isn't very much to eat in your kitchen.

Tracy: Well, go home and eat then.

Gwen: There's not much there, either. Let's go out and have a sandwich.

Tracy: Gwen! I'm very tired and I don't want a sandwich.

Gwen: Never mind. I'm going. By the way, can I borrow your black dress?

Tracy: You already have it.

Gwen: Oh, that's right. Then, can I have the shoes that match?

Tracy: Goodbye, Gwen!

episode 12

Gwen: Now calm down, Tracy.

Tracy: I don't know what to wear. How do you like this one?

Gwen: I prefer the black one.

Tracy: I have two black dresses. Which one do you mean?

Gwen: That one with the short sleeves.

Tracy: Listen Gwen. I need a dress for a formal dinner at Channel TV. That dress is for the beach. It's too casual.

Gwen: When is the dinner?

Tracy: Tonight.

Gwen: Oh. It's too late to go shopping now.

Tracy: What about this one?

Gwen: Oh, no. It's too... too... you know... I prefer that one.

Tracy: Which one? Mmm... It's a bit too formal.

Gwen: I think it suits you. After all, it is for a formal dinner.

Tracy: I don't have the right shoes.

Gwen: What about those?

Tracy: Which ones?

Gwen: Those. The red and black ones.

Tracy: I don't like these shoes.

Gwen: Why not?

Tracy: They're old-fashioned. Forget it. It's the wrong size.

Gwen: What size are you?

Tracy: I'm a six. That's a four. It doesn't fit me any longer.

Gwen: Oh, I'm a six, too. What about this one then?

Tracy: What's that? It's beautiful.

Gwen: It's a new dress, but I don't think I really like it.

Tracy: How much is it? I want it.

Gwen: Are you sure? It is a bit expensive. It's $200.

Tracy: I don't care. It's exactly what I want and I have shoes that go with it.

Gwen: OK then. There you are.

Tracy: Thanks, Gwen. You're an angel.

Gwen: Two hundred bucks, please.

episode 13

Tracy: Hey, Len! What are you doing here so early?

Network Teacher's Guide Elementary Transcripts

Len: I'm preparing for my trip to New York, you know.
Tracy: Well, guess what? I am going on a trip, too, and I'm going farther.
Len: Really? Where are you going?
Tracy: Guess.
Len: San Francisco.
Tracy: You got it.
Len: Wow! It's the most beautiful city in the country.
Tracy: Do you think so?
Len: Of course. I'm so jealous. San Francisco is my favorite city.
Tracy: Really? But surely New York is more exciting.
Len: Well, San Francisco is much smaller than New York, but I think that it's actually a more exciting city.
Tracy: I don't think so. New York has all those wonderful museums and the best theaters in the world.
Len: Maybe, but I'm sure that the food they serve in the restaurants, at Fisherman's Wharf is better than the food in any restaurant in New York.
Tracy: Oh, come on, Len. New York has the best restaurants in America.
Len: You're right. New York has excellent restaurants, but I believe San Francisco is certainly much more romantic.
Tracy: Oh, Len! I'm going to San Francisco on business and on my own. There isn't anyone to have a romantic meal with at Fisherman's Wharf.
Len: Maybe I could change my plans. I could take you for a romantic meal.
Tracy: I don't think that's necessary, Len.
Len: Don't you think you'd have a better time in San Francisco with a good friend?
Tracy: I have a better idea. Let's trade assignments. You go to San Francisco and I go to New York.
Len: Oh, Tracy!

Tracy: I guess so. So tell me what do you do when you get time off?
Joel: There's lots to do: hiking, fishing, scuba-diving...
Tracy: I've heard there is an interesting cave about two miles away from the beach. Have you ever been there?
Joel: I've been there once. I went there last year and I have to tell you it's amazing. Actually, some friends of mine have gone today, but I couldn't join them.
Tracy: You have to work, right?
Joel: That's right. And appear on the show, too.
Tracy: Sure. Now tell me, Joel, what about the night life? What is it like? Where do you usually go?
Joel: Lots of different places. Tonight for example we're going to a Mexican restaurant and then after that on to a club. Do you like Mexican food?
Tracy: I love it.
Joel: What about Latin music? Do you like it, too?
Tracy: I'm a Latin maniac!
Joel: In that case, why don't you come along with us?
Tracy: Well, that's very nice of you, Joel. Tune in to Talk to Tracy tomorrow when I'll be looking at Fairview's night life.

episode 14

Tracy: Hi, everybody. This is Talk to Tracy with Tracy Woodstock. I am at Fairview Beach on this beautiful summer afternoon. It's vacation time for most people, but some people are working here. With me is Joel Hamilton, one of the lifeguards. Hi, Joel.
Joel: Hi, Tracy. I've always wanted to meet you. Hi, everybody!
Tracy: Thank you Joel. So, how long have you worked here?
Joel: This is my second summer. I go to college you see.
Tracy: So, this is a summer job.
Joel: That's right, Tracy. I'm a medical student. You know I've always wanted to be a doctor.
Tracy: Interesting. So, tell me have you ever had to rescue anyone?
Joel: You bet! Haven't you seen me?
Tracy: No. I've never been here before.
Joel: Well, people do silly things. They eat a lot and then they go swimming. That's very dangerous.
Tracy: I guess your job isn't an easy one. Do you get much time off?
Joel: Oh yes, there are eighteen lifeguards altogether, so we get lots of time off.
Tracy: Eighteen of you! Wow! Are they all fit like you?
Joel: Oh, yes, we have to be.
