Tracy: It's over there. Take a look.

Len: It's great.

Tracy: It's OK.

Len: Where's your furniture?

Tracy: Oh, it's in the garage.

Len: Where's your car?

Tracy: It's in front of the garage.

Len: I see. Do you have a sofa?

Tracy: Yes, and I also have an armchair, a coffee table, a bookcase, a desk and a lamp.

Len: There are two balconies. Is there a balcony in the bedroom, too?

Tracy: Yes, there is. Come and see. The bedroom is over there, next to the kitchen.

Len: It's a big bedroom.

Tracy: My bed is big!

Len: What is that?

Tracy: That's my cat Amy.

Len: Where is she?
Tracy: She's behind the door.
Len: Where?
Tracy: Behind the door. On the floor. She's unhappy. You see, the bedroom is empty.
Len: What do you mean?
Tracy: Well, she is usually under the bed but the bed isn't here.
Len: I see.
Tracy: Len, I have an idea.
Len: What is it?
Tracy: The bed is in the garage.
Len: So?
Tracy: Here is the key to the garage.
Len: Oh, Tracy, the bed is heavy.
Tracy: I'll help you. Oh, no!

Waiter: And you?
Tracy: I'd like a glass of orange juice.
Len: I'm hungry. I usually have a big breakfast, but not today.

Tim: It's January 24th and we are in the middle of winter. We have weather reports from three different states. Our first report is from Daniel Preston in Detroit, Michigan. Hi, Daniel. What's the weather like there?
Daniel: Hi, Tim. It's snowing and the temperature here in Detroit is 36°F. Believe me there's a lot of snow. It's beautiful but there are some problems. Many people are not working today. They're staying at home and they're digging their cars out of the snow. For those on the road, driving is very difficult.
Tim: I see. Thanks Daniel. And now on to our second report from Stella Ross in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Hi, Stella. Is it snowing there, too?
Stella: Hi, Tim. It's snowing here in Pittsburgh, too and it's very cold. It's 25°F at the moment. There is snow everywhere and it's really beautiful. We don't have any serious problems here in Pittsburgh. There are many people outside especially children. They're riding on their sleds or playing with the snow and they're having a good time.
Tim: Thank you Stella. And now on to our third reporter, Tina Lester in Honolulu, Hawaii. Hi, Tina! What are you doing now?
Tina: Hello, Tim. I'm sitting on the beach. It's a beautiful day today and the temperature is 73°F. It's warm and sunny but a bit windy. The ocean is really beautiful and it's a lovely color. Look at this: the sun is dancing on the water.

Tim: That's pretty. Thanks, Tina. And now the weather forecast for this evening.

episode 11

Tracy: Hi, Len!
Len: Hi, Tracy.
Tracy: That fish you gave me was delicious. I cooked it last night.
Len: Oh, really?
Tracy: Yes, I was with my sister and we really enjoyed it. Now I want to know the story of this fish. You said it's a long story.
Len: Well, I was with a couple of friends on the weekend, Brendan and Cindy.
Tracy: Really? Was it fun?
Len: Yeah, it was wonderful. We went on a picnic by the lake in Greenwood Nature Park.
Tracy: Nice! I went there with my sister last summer. It's lovely.
Len: So, you know the lake.
Tracy: Yes, it's a beautiful place. Very romantic. Were there many people?
Len: No, not many. Anyway, we had our picnic, we walked around and then ...
Tracy: And then?
Len: I wanted to do some fishing.
Tracy: Ah, now I understand. Well, it was really delicious.
Len: Well Tracy, ... you see, I did some fishing.
Tracy: Yes, I know, Len and I really enjoyed the fish.
Len: Good, good, but I had a problem.
Tracy: What problem?
Len: You see, I was there fishing. Suddenly, a fish pulled on the line. I thought, "this fish is for Tracy." It was a very big fish.
Tracy: Yes, I know Len. It was very big and delicious. Thanks.
Len: No, no. Wait a minute. The fish pulled hard, I pulled hard, the fish pulled very hard.
Tracy: Well, you are very strong, Len.
Len: But the fish won. It pulled me into the lake.
Tracy: What? And what about that fish you gave me?
Len: I bought it from the fish market.
Tracy: Oh, poor Len! Oh no!
Len: Brendan and Cindy thought it was funny, too.

episode 12

Len: Thank you and welcome to Quiz Time. Our first contestant is Mary. Mary, is this your first time on our quiz show?
Mary: No, it isn't. I appeared in your quiz show four months ago.
Len: That's right. Did you enjoy it?
Mary: Yes, I did. It was great fun!
Len: How much did you win?
Mary: I won $200.
Len: Are you ready to play?

Mary: Yes.

Len: Good. Our first question is: What did John Logie Baird invent in 1926? Did he invent the radio? The television? Or the computer?

Mary: I know the answer. He invented the television.

Len: Yes! That's right. Now on to the second question. Who invented the air conditioner? Willis Haviland Carrier, Elisha Otis or William Hoover?

Mary: Air conditioner. Carrier invented it.

Len: That's right again. Congratulations. And now question number 3. When did Wilbur and Orville Wright invent the airplane? Did they invent it in 1897, in 1903 or in 1911?

Mary: Mmm, they didn't invent it in 1911. I think it's 1903 but I'm not 100% sure. Anyway, I say 1903.

Len: Yes! Three correct answers. You win, Mary.

Mary: How much do I win?

Len: Well, today we don't have money prizes.

Mary: What do you mean?

Len: We have some wonderful appliances as prizes. Do you have a toaster at home, Mary?

Mary: Yes, I do.

Len: I see. When did you buy it?

Mary: I bought it two years ago.

Len: Oh, it's old then. Throw it away, you don't need it anymore. You won this beautiful brand new toaster.

Mary: Thank you.

episode 13

Len: Hello and welcome to Focus. My guest today is Clyde Boone. Clyde has a really strange story to tell us. So, Clyde what happened?

Clyde: Well, yesterday we drove to Greenwood Park, I mean Greenwood Nature Park ... I'm sorry, Len. I still can't believe it.

Len: Don't worry. Take your time.

Clyde: Thank you Len. I'm alright now. My wife Donna and I left home at about six yesterday evening and drove to Greenwood Nature Park. We had our things and our tent.

Len: Why did you go there?

Clyde: Because it's a nice and cool place. You see, it was a very hot day yesterday, so Donna and I decided to have a picnic and spend the night there. Anyway, we love camping.

Len: Do you often go camping in Greenwood Nature Park?

Clyde: Oh yes. We always have a good time there but now I'm sorry we went. I thought it was a safe place but ...

Len: But it wasn't, right?

Clyde: That's right.

Len: Where did you put up your tent?

Clyde: Under a big tree by the lake. It was a quiet place. You see, we didn't want many people around us. Can you imagine?

Len: I guess that was a big mistake.

Clyde: It sure was.

Len: Why Clyde? What happened?

Clyde: We had our picnic and we cleaned up. We were very, very tired so we went to bed. It was around 10:30.

Len: Right. And what happened during the night?

Clyde: I don't know. The next thing I knew, I woke up and I was outside.

Len: What do you mean?

Clyde: Well, Len, I was in the tent when I went to bed and I was outside the tent when I woke up.

Len: I can't believe it! They took your tent and you didn't wake up!

Clyde: No, believe me. And it was a very big tent, a tent for six people.

Len: What about your wife?

Clyde: My wife? Oh, no, they didn't take Donna, just the tent.

Len: I mean didn't she wake up either?

Clyde: No, no.

Len: That's really strange, Clyde. So what did you do?

Clyde: I didn't know what to do. I felt really bad and then Donna said: "Clyde, why don't you go on Len Dawson's show?"

Len: That was a really good idea. And that was a really strange story. Thank you, Clyde.

Clyde: You are welcome.

Len: And here is your present.

Clyde: A present?

Len: Yes! A new tent. And a very special tent. With this you are 100% safe. Look.

episode 14

Tracy: I'm glad it's the end of another week.

Len: Me too. What are you going to do this weekend?

Tracy: Nothing special. My sister and I are going to the movies.

Len: Really? What are you going to see?

Tracy: The new Tom Cruise movie. What about you?

Len: I'm going to that new beach resort, Blue Paradise.

Tracy: I hear it's a wonderful place.

Len: It sure is. Take a look at the new commercial for it.

Tracy: Wow! The swimming pool is huge.

Len: And look at the gardens and the beautiful flowers.

Tracy: It looks impressive.

Len: Say ... would you like to come with me?

Tracy: I'm sorry but I can't.

Len: Why not? It's going to be fun. We are going to swim and sunbathe.

Tracy: I need a new bathing suit.

Len: You have time to buy one.

Tracy: I also need suntan lotion.

Len: You can buy everything you need there.

Tracy: But what about my sister?

Len: Oh, come on, Tracy. You don't go to a beach resort every weekend. You can go to the movies with your sister next week.

Tracy: Well ... I don't know.

Len: You're going to relax by the swimming pool, enjoy the beautiful landscape and have some great food.

Tracy: It sounds lovely but ...

Len: What's the matter now?

Tracy: Are you going with friends?

Len: No, I'm going alone.

Tracy: Oh.

Len: Now what?

Tracy: I think it's going to be very expensive.

- Len: Don't worry. The resort offers a free weekend to two people from Channel TV, in a suite.
- Tracy: But ...
- Len: Actually, each of us is going to have a private suite. So, do you want to come?
- Tracy: In that case, I'd love to.
