- 1) The best way is to accept invitations from your colleagues or to ask suggestions from others who are in your situation and who have been there longer than you have.
- 2) It means they would like to be your friends and will probably offer to pay.

3

- 1) Because Bosnian people's friendships are locally based and centered on family and religious groups. They tend to go out in groups and not strike up conversations with strangers in bar or cafe.

004

- 2) Respect their country; show interests to their language and culture; accept and reciprocate invitations from colleagues and neighbors.
